More Than Conquerors Faith Church

The Informer

A Church for the entire family!

We began 2011 with a prophetic word from Isaiah 58th chapter. Within that chapter there is a promise of "breaking forth". The strategies necessary to loose bands of wickedness and unravel heavy burdens are also revealed. The Father continued to reiterate to us the need to break forth. This time however, He revealed it to us as a process. We received the "breaking" forth message in stages during a Wednesday night service. In systematic order the Spirit of God wrought deliverance from the kingdom of darkness for many. The first stage: breaking free; becoming loosed and detached from bondages and restrictions of the enemy, such as someone wriggling free from binding ropes, secondly, breaking thru; when we come out of the loosened restrictions, limitations of the enemy and its' demonic holding power, as when one snatches off the ropes or cuffs that once held them; thirdly- breaking out- the release and freedom spiritually, naturally, emotionally, physically or financially from the dungeon/ prison that caged them; as would one escaping from a kidnapped situation through a window, door, or opportune route of escape; Lastly, breaking forth-after being released and removed from the atmosphere and place of imprisonment, breaking forth is that forward movement toward a new place in Christ! This would be the type of actions or movement you would expect from one who was kidnapped. It would be the immediate response on the other side of the opened door or window after being set free. Obviously, it would be one of running, liberty, and fresh hope! Out of a place of intimacy and worship, during our recent 2011 Lover's Nite Out, the Father again spoke to us of His liberating power upon the lives of His children. Through prophetic worship, He released the words, "NO MORE SHACKLES"! Chorus after chorus the congregation continued to declare the words into the atmosphere, NO MORE SHACKLES! With each declaration we began to see the manifestation of those present becoming more and more free! Through dance, shouting, praising, and simple tearful cries of gratefulness the Spirit of liberty in Christ Jesus began to overtake those within the sanctuary. Now, we prepare to see the faithfulness of our Father as He declares freedom and deliverance over our children. As a body we will host, "2011 Spring Break-OUT", Setting the Captives Free (Mar. 13-Mar. 20)! This year's youth conference has been declared as a time of "breakout" for our youth. Just as in the natural, children may have a time of chicken pox, or other breakouts, we intercept the plans of destruction and bondage of the enemy and decree a spiritual breakout of revival and deliverance for them! With a lineup which includes testimonies from those who have broken free from drugs, alcohol, street life, religion and a variety of other situations, we believe according to Rev. 12, coupled with the blood of Jesus and these dynamic testimonies, our youth have overcome!! Thanks be to God; our future generations are also inheriting the prophetic word of breaking forth as decreed at the beginning of the year. No longer does the kingdom of darkness, bondage, or despair dictate our future, because we no longer are held in those shackles. We are truly breaking forth into a place of purpose and destiny, enlightened by the glory of God!!
